

The “alumnus” cake

baked by Sarah Goller

The “alumnus” cake looks very tasty with its dark chocolate base and white and blue cream dots. Matched in the “alumnus” colors white and blue, the baker Sarah Goller created this multilayer cream cake. It is decorated with the “alumnus” logo of powdered sugar. Sarah is an alumna of the University of Stuttgart who usually publishes her baked treats on a baking blog. You can find all of her recipes on „Sarahs Backblog“: <https://sarahsbackblog.de/> Exclusively for us, Sarah baked the „alumnus” cake for all graduates of the University of Stuttgart to congratulate them on their graduation.
